at Shechem (Ge 12:7)?

Would give the land to his seed (singular noun in the original Hebrew, not "seeds")

The promises were spoke to Abram's seed - Who is his seed according to Gal 3:16?

Christ

After Lot had separated, how long did God promise He would give the land to Abram - Ge 13:15?

Forever

What promise did God reaffirm to Abram regarding his descendants? Ge 13:16?

Abram's seed would be like dust of earth

What additional insights are given in Ge 15:1, 2, 3, 4, 5-note?

In this section God restates and clarifies His promises to Abram..

Offspring would come forth from his own body -- Abram's seed would be as the stars (in number)

What was Abram's response Ge 15:6-note?

Abram believed in Jehovah and He reckoned it to him as righteousness

(Note: Abram's "salvation" occurred 14 years prior to his circumcision [Ge 17:24] - The point is that circumcision was never meant to save anyone! This is a great Scriptural point to remind your Jewish friends that no man is saved by works [keeping mitzvah] of any kind be it circumcision, etc)

Note: From other Scriptures we know that Jehovah = Jesus [see notes])

What did Abram actually believe according to Paul? Gal 3:8-note (see comment), Gal 3:16-note

Jehovah would judge the Egyptians who had afflicted Israel for 400 years and bring them back to Canaan in the 4th generation

What does this demonstrate about God?

He is a covenant keeping God Who actions are based on covenant

What did God explain to Moses about His name in (Ex 6:2,3)?

The Lord stated that He had appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty, EL Shaddai, but had not made Himself known to them as Jehovah (Click study of Jehovah)

How would God make Himself known to the sons of Israel? (Ex 6:6, 7, 8)

God would reveal Himself through His redemption and deliverance of the sons of Israel from Egyptian bondage.

Here God is clearly associating His Name Jehovah with His covenant promises to Abraham. Thus Jehovah is His precious Name that links Him irrevocably through the Abrahamic covenant with Israel. It is the Name so sacred to the Jews that they will not pronounce it in the Synagogue, instead substituting "Adonai" (Master) or simply saying "the Name".

What took place in the outer courtyard?

The children of Israel could enter the outer court where the sacrifices were performed on the brazen altar

Who entered the Holy place? how often?

Priest entered daily

Who entered the Holy of holies? High priest only once per year on the Day of Atonement

Let's look at how the tabernacle is a picture or shadow of Jesus Christ

How many ways were there into the Tabernacle, the Holy place and the Holy of holies?

Only entrance

One way

Door always faced east

How does this truth foreshadow Jesus in (Jn 10:9, 14:6)?

Jesus declared

"I am the way, the truth, the life and no one comes to the Father but through Me.

"I am the door; if anyone enters through me, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

What is the first article of furniture?

Altar of bronze with 4 horns

The place where SACRIFICE of the lamb (or other animal) took place in order to bring about reconciliation for sin and facilitate consecration

How does this picture Jesus Christ? (Jn 1:29)

Jesus is the sacrificial Lamb of God Who takes away the sin of the world

It speaks of the reconciliation one can have through the blood of the eternal covenant in Jesus Christ (see the discussion below re "Mercy Seat")

Just as the priests could not come before the LORD without a sacrifice,

The Gospel

God preached the gospel in Ge 12:3 ("in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed"; Ge 22:18 adds the phrase "in your Seed" = masculine, singular ~ Christ) and in Ge 15:6 Abraham believed the gospel

Gal 3:16-note teaches us that Abraham believed the promise of the seed = coming Messiah (Seed = Christ; cp 2Co 1:20 where "in Him" = in Christ)

What conditions involved in this covenant?

None, unconditional, for God walked through the pieces of cut flesh alone

Fulfillment of the promises depended solely on God's faithfulness

What additional prophetic promises did God make in Ge 15:13, 14, 15, 16?

Descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs (Ge 15:13)

Enslaved and oppressed 400 yr (Ge 15:13)

Will come out with many possessions (Ex 3:21, 22) for God will judge the nation that they serve (Ge 15:14)

Will return in the 4th generation (one generation at that time ~100 yr) (Ge 15:16)

Explanatory Note:

Since the Name "Jehovah" (Yahweh) occurs in Genesis in association with the patriarchs, how is it that He did not reveal Himself as Jehovah to them? I agree with Ryrie who states that "The name Yahweh was known to the patriarchs (Ge 13:4), but its significance as the One who would redeem Israel from Egyptian bondage was not known until this time." The subsequent events by which He would redeem the sons of Israel from bondage in Egypt would amply demonstrate Jehovah's character as the personal (there are 7 "I wills" in Ex 6:6, 7, 8), covenant-keeping God, faithful to His promises, and the Lord of history. Thus although the Name "Jehovah" had been used in Genesis the patriarchs did not grasp the mighty implications of this Name which would now take on new significance.

Now we will look specifically at the Old Covenant

In the third month after the LORD had brought the sons of Israel out of Egypt, they came to the wilderness of Sinai.

Where are the children camped? (Ex 19:2)

At the foot of the mountain Mt Sinai

Explanatory Note:

Note that all of the following take place at Mt Sinai - Exodus 19-40, all of Leviticus, Numbers 1-9

Who did God make this covenant with in Ex 19:3, 4? What was Moses' function?

Moses acted as the "mediator" ("go between") between Jehovah and the sons of Israel

The covenant was instituted with we too must receive by faith the once for all sacrifice of Jesus Christ.

What is the next article in the outer courtyard?

Laver - priests would wash daily before entering Holy place

Explanatory Note:

The laver was made of bronze a symbol of judgment. They could not enter the Holy place without washing.

How are we made clean today? (Jn 15:3, Eph 5:26)

Jesus is the Word and we are cleansed through Him

Cleansed through the washing of the water with the Word

What was on the right (north) side of the Holy place? (Ex 25:23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30)

Table of Showbread

Explanatory Note:

The table held 12 loaves for the 12 tribes of Israel. The bread was to be eaten by the priests on the Sabbath and then replaced with fresh bread

By what metaphor did Jesus describe Himself in (Jn 6:48, 51)?

The Bread of life - Living Bread (Using the language of covenant)

Explanatory Note:

The table of showbread, made of acacia wood and overlaid with gold, was to the right (north) as one entered the Holy place. The table is estimated to have been 3 feet long, 1/2 foot wide and about 21/2 feet off the ground.

On it were twelve loaves of bread representing God's covenant people, Israel. Every Sabbath these were eaten by the priests and fresh bread placed upon the table

What article set opposite (south) the Table of Showbread? How did

Explanatory Note:

The enslavement of the descendants of Abraham for 430 years (400 years) "is a thematic stitch sewing the Book of Genesis to the rest of the Pentateuch" (Believer's Study Bible)

Another explanation is that Israel was in Egypt for 430 years but the first 30 years were as a free people (while Joseph still maintained influence).

400 Years	430 Years
Ge 15:13	Ex 12:40
Acts 7:6	Ga 3:17

Virtually every commentary states that 400 represents a "rounding off" of the number 430. In fairness it should be noted that some feel that the "rounding off" interpretation allows for too much liberty in the interpretation of other numbers in Scripture and could even "do damage" to the doctrine of divine inspiration. Scripture mentions both numbers and it wise to remember Paul's exhortation to Timothy to tell others "not to wrangle about words which is useless and leads to the ruin (Greek = katastrophe) of the hearers" (2 Ti 2:14-note)

What new information did God reveal to Abram at age 99 in Ge 17:5, 6?

Name changed to Abraham

Lord told him that he would be the father of a multitude of nations, and kings would come from him

What new truth did God reveal in Ge 17:7, 8?

I will be God to you and your seed

the house of Jacob = sons of Israel = nation of Israel

How do you know this covenant is not an extension of the Abrahamic Covenant from Ex 19:5, 6?

Abrahamic Covenant was unconditional and totally dependent on God's faithfulness.

The Old Covenant is conditional = if they obey then they could enjoy the promises was unconditional.

When did God initiate this covenant?

When Israel had been delivered from bondage in Egypt

What does God promise to Israel if they obey? Ex 19:5, 6?

1. my own possession
2. kingdom of priests,
3. holy nation

What was Israel's response to God? What is Moses' role? Ex 19:8

Moses = the mediator
We will do ALL

What was Jehovah's command to the children regarding their relationship to the Canaanites? (Ex 23:32, 33)

Make no covenant with them or their gods (if they served their gods it would be a snare)

Do not even let them live in the land (they might make Israel sin against God)

How is the Old Covenant ratified in Ex 24:3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8?

1. . Moses recounted the law
2. . People say "We will obey"
3. Built altar, 12 pillars, sacrificed
4. Read the recorded words from the book of the covenant
5. Again they said "We will it foreshadow the description of Jesus in (Jn 1:4, 8:12)?

Seven branched candlestick

Jesus is the Light of the world (cf what believers are to be Mt 5:14, 15, 16)

Explanatory Note:

The candlestick was made of pure gold. It burned olive oil night and day, serving as the only light in the tabernacle

What is the article of furniture in front of the Veil (see explanatory note below)?

What did it symbolize and how did it foreshadow Jesus' work in (Heb 7:25, cf Ro 8:34)?

Altar of Incense was to burn perpetually and symbolized prayer

In the true Tabernacle in Heaven, Jesus ever lives to continually (present tense) make intercession

Explanatory Note:

The altar of incense, made of acacia wood and gold, was either in the Holy place (Ex 30:6 ; Ex 40:26), or in the Holy of holies (Heb 9:3,4). It was 3 feet high and stood higher than the table of showbread and the ark of the covenant. Incense was to burn perpetually

What separated the Holy place from the Holy of holies? What is the NT parallel with Jesus in (Heb 10:19, 20, 21, 22, Mt 27:50, 51)?

The Veil = the only entrance into the Holy of holies, which symbolized the Throne of God (See notes Heb 10:19, 20; 21; 22)

Jesus is the rent veil, His torn flesh giving us access to God so that now believers may boldly approach the Throne of Grace (Heb 4:16-note)

The land as an everlasting possession

What did God reveal to Abram in Ge 17:21?

My covenant I will establish with

Isaac

Explanatory Note:

Note that the promise to Isaac (even before he was born) was made after the birth of Ishmael, who was not the son of promise and not the line by which the promises to Abraham would be passed. Circumcision, the sign of the covenant with Abraham was given in Genesis 17.

What do we learn about the lineage of the Abrahamic Covenant in Ge 25:23, 33,34?

Before Isaac's twin sons Esau and Jacob were born the Lord told Rebekah, Isaac's wife and their mother, that there were two nations in her womb and the older (Esau) would serve the younger (Jacob).

Esau, the natural heir as the firstborn, sold his birthright to his younger brother, Jacob

When the LORD appeared to Isaac what did He state concerning the heir of the Abrahamic covenant in Ge 26:3,4 & Ge 26:24?

The promises first given to Abraham were passed down to Isaac (the land, multiplied descendants as the stars) (Ge 26:3,4)

I am with you. I will bless you, and multiply your descendants for the sake of my servant Abraham (Ge 26:24)

With whom was the covenant next confirmed -- Genesis 28:14,15?

Jacob

SEED shall also be like DUST of obey"

6. Moses sprinkled blood on the book and on the people
7. Covenant meal
8. Went up

What did God write the 10 commandments on? Exodus 24:12

tablets of stone

What was the appearance of God on Mt Sinai like? (Ex 24:17)

A consuming fire

What happened when the sons of Israel perceived that Moses had delayed returning from Mt Sinai? (Ex 32:1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6)

The children of Israel made a golden calf and began to worship it

What did Moses do with the Tablets of Stone when he returned from Mt Sinai and discovered the idolatry? (Ex 32:19, 20)

Moses broke the tablets

What did Moses do in (Ex 34:1,2)?

Exodus 34 returns to the mountain so God could write His laws upon tables of stone

How would you summarize the interaction of the sons of Israel with the Old Covenant?

They broke the Old Covenant soon after swearing they would obey

The Old Covenant centered around the Tabernacle—the tabernacle was an integral part of the Old Covenant.

Explanatory Note:

The Veil, made of blue, purple, and scarlet fine and twined linen, separated the Holy place from the Holy of holies. No priest could enter except through the veil; it was the only way to approach the ark of the covenant.

What was in the Holy of holies? Ark of the Covenant covered by the Mercy Seat

"Mercy" covered the Old Covenant of the law!

What transpired at the mercy seat?

The high priest met with God once each year placing blood on the Mercy Seat to cover the sins of Israel

What transpired at the mercy seat?

The high priest placed blood on the Mercy Seat once each year "covering" the sins of Israel

What does the Mercy Seat foreshadow according to (Ro 3:25-note)?

The Mercy Seat was a picture of the propitiation of God's anger. Jesus took the punishment for our sins and in so doing satisfied (propitiated) God's anger against sinners who place their faith in Him. Believers are in essence "covered by the blood of Christ" and can now meet with God at His Throne any time, any day in contrast to the Jewish high priest who could only go into God's presence once per year on the Day of Atonement

Given that the Mercy Seat was where God met man and over which the Shekinah Glory Cloud dwelt, how was this picture a shadow of Jesus? (see John 1:14)

the earth

In your SEED shall ALL THE FAMILIES OF THE EARTH BE BLESSED (cf Ge 12:3)

What is the implication when God calls Himself "the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac"?

He is making reference to His covenant with Abraham

What happened to Jacob after returning to the land of Canaan after 20 years in Paddan-aram (Ge 32:28)?

Jacob wrestled with God and submitted

His name was changed from Jacob to Israel

From Jacob, where was the covenant passed (Ge 35:11, cf Ge 49:1, 2, 28)?

To the 12 sons of Israel who would be head of 12 tribes which in turn would comprise the nation of Israel

Explanatory

Genesis closes with Israel and his 12 sons living in Egypt. They went to Egypt under the protection of Joseph, Israel's son, to escape the famine in Canaan, the land of their inheritance under the Abrahamic Covenant.

In Egypt, they would live as free men until the Pharaoh of Joseph's time died. Then they would become slaves of the Egyptians for 400/430 years (Ge 15:13) and answer the question.

What in essence was the Abrahamic covenant?

God's promises

1. The seed = Jesus Christ
2. The land
3. I will be your God

In short, we note that Abraham

John beheld Jesus' glory, the Word made flesh as He "tabernacled" among men

Who did the high priest meet at the Mercy Seat? (see Jn 8:58, 10:30)

Jehovah Who was also Jesus because He was the "I Am" and He and His Father are One.

Explanatory Note:

The ark of the covenant, made of acacia wood covered with gold, occupied the Holy of holies. This box was 2 feet wide, 3 feet 9 inches long, and 2 feet high. On top of the ark was a lid called the Mercy Seat. Hovering above the Mercy Seat were two cherubim, with outstretched wings. The ark contained the tables of stone, a pot of manna, and Aaron's rod that budded. There we meet Jesus, God incarnate, Who, before Abraham was born, was the I AM, one with the Father.

In Ex 33:9 we read that "whenever Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud (Shekinah Glory Cloud) would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent; and the LORD would speak with Moses."

REVIEW

Abrahamic = promise of the Seed = the coming Messiah, the land, the nation (Israel), unconditional, forever

Old = conditional, tabernacle place where God dwelt, picture of Jesus

Cross of Christ.

THE THREE COVENANTS HOW THEY RELATE TO JESUS

ABRAHAMIC COVENANT	PROMISE of Jesus Christ
OLD COVENANT	PICTURE of Jesus Christ
NEW COVENANT	PERSON of Jesus Christ

SHADOWS OF MESSIAH IN THE TABERNACLE DESCRIBED IN THE OLD COVENANT

The Abrahamic Covenant

God made a covenant with Abraham promising him primarily two things: a seed and a land. The Abrahamic Covenant was also ratified with Isaac, Jacob (name changed to Israel), and his sons who comprised the nation of Israel.

The Old Covenant of Law

430 (400) years later, God made a covenant of Law with the nation of Israel. Moses was the mediator of that covenant. God spoke to Moses. Moses spoke to the people.

The Old Covenant, or the Law, centered around the tabernacle and the related ceremonies and sacrifices. The earthly tabernacle was built under Moses' direction after the pattern of God's heavenly tabernacle. Therefore, the tabernacle served as an integral part of the Old Covenant. What the earthly tabernacle was to the Old Covenant, the true tabernacle in heaven is to the New Covenant (Hebrews 8:5-see note)

The New Covenant of Grace

Through Jeremiah, the prophet, God promised the New Covenant in Jer 31:31, 32, 33, 34,

Although not using the term "New Covenant", the following passages are clearly allusions in the Old Testament to the New Covenant = Is 59:20, 21; Jer. 32:37, 38, 39, 40; Zech 9:11 Ezek. 16:60, 61, 62, 63; 34:25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 37:21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28)

Here are New Testament passages relating to the New Covenant = Mt 26:26, 27, 28, 29, Lk 22:18, 29, 30. cp Is 25:6, Mt 8:11, Lk 22:19, 20, Mark 14:24, 25, 26, Heb 13:20, Ezek 11:19,20; 18:31; 36:26,27)

Jesus was the mediator of the New Covenant, a better covenant than the Law.

When the New Covenant was inaugurated by Jesus Christ, the Old Covenant became obsolete.

Heb 8:6 (see note) But now He (Who is "He"? Jesus our High Priest) has obtained a more excellent ministry (far superior to the ministry of those who serve under the old laws), by as much as (to the degree that) He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises. Heb 8:7 For if that first covenant had been faultless (The "fault" or limitation in the first covenant was not in its inherent righteousness, but in its design from God himself. It was never intended to be his final revelation or provision for mankind; it was provisional, always pointing toward the fulfillment to come in Christ), there would have been no occasion sought for a second. (See complete discussion in Hebrews 8:1; 2; 3; 4; 5; 6; 7; 8; 9; 10; 11; 12; 13 see notes on He 8:1; 2; 3; 4; 5; 6; 7; 8; 9; 10; 11; 12; 13)

The covenant is "better" because it is absolute not conditional, spiritual not carnal, universal not local, eternal not temporal, individual not national, internal not external. (Griffith Thomas)

First, there is a comparison. Christ's ministry is as superior to the ministry of the Aaronic priests as the covenant He meditates is superior to the old one.

Second, a reason is given: the covenant is better because it is enacted on better promises.

Christ's ministry is infinitely better. He offered Himself, not an animal. He presented the value of His own blood, not the blood of bulls and goats. He put away sins, not merely covered them. He gave believers a perfect conscience, not an annual reminder of sins. He opened the way for us to enter into the presence of God, not to stand outside at a distance.

It is a better covenant because it is founded on better promises. The covenant of law promised blessing for obedience but threatened death for disobedience. It required righteousness but did not give the ability to produce it.

The New Covenant is an unconditional covenant of grace which is entered into by faith.

The New Covenant imputes righteousness (1Cor 1:30, 2Cor 5:21) where there is none.

The New Covenant teaches men to live righteously (Titus 2:11, 12), empowers them to do so (1Cor 15:10, 2Cor 12:9, 10), and rewards them when they do (2Cor 5:9,10, 1Cor 3:10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, Col 3:23, 24, 25, Eph 6:7, 8, Rev 22:12).

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Galatian 3:8 Commentary

William MacDonald on Gal 3:8..

When we first read this quotation from Genesis, we find it difficult to see how Paul found such a meaning in it. Yet the Holy Spirit, who wrote that verse in the OT, knew that it contained the gospel of salvation by faith to all nations. Since Paul was writing by inspiration of the same Holy Spirit, he was enabled to explain to us the underlying meaning: In you—that is, along with Abraham, in the same way as Abraham. All the nations—the Gentiles as well as the Jews. Shall be blessed—be saved. How was Abraham saved? By faith. How will the nations be saved? In the same way as Abraham—by faith. Moreover, they will be saved as Gentiles, not by becoming Jews. (MacDonald, W & Farstad, A. Believer's Bible Commentary: Thomas Nelson or Logos)

John MacArthur on Gal 3:8...

The only Scripture available to Paul at this time was what? The Old Testament. So he uses the Old Testament to defend salvation by faith. That's important, because there are many people who think the Old Testament teaches that you are saved by works. It does not teach that. God is always consistent and salvation is always by faith. You couldn't make yourself righteous in the Old Testament any more than you can in the New Testament. It is the same incapacity man has had since the fall, so salvation has always been by faith.

So what you really have in this section (Gal 3:6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14,15, 16-note) is a theology of the Old Testament If you want to know how people were saved in the Old Testament, just read through here and you'll find out. It's the same way they are saved at any time: by faith in God's revelation. You say, "Did they have to believe in everything? Did they have to believe in the death of Christ, the resurrection of Christ and the Second Coming?" Of course not. They had to believe as much as God had revealed. At any point in time, a man was required to believe all God had said. If a man was living in the time of Adam, God hadn't said that much. He had to believe all that God had revealed (cp see Cain's faith in Heb 11:4-note). If the man was living later on, in the time of Moses, God began to reveal more and man had to believe all that God had revealed. For the man who lives post-New Testament, he has to believe all God revealed, up through the fullness of salvation as seen in Jesus Christ...

Gal 3:8. "And the Scripture," and here, he gets into the heavy part of his argument and starts quoting Scripture. "The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, 'In thee shall all nations be blessed.'" Hang onto this, because we have to kind of untangle this verse to get into the logic of Paul.

Here is his direct answer. Notice the word Gospel. It means 'good news.' What is the good news that God wants to give us? Salvation by faith. Did He give that to Abraham? He certainly did. He preached before the good news that salvation comes by faith unto Abraham." But he preached also that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, that all the nations down through the ages would be justified by faith, as well as the Jews. Sure, he didn't just say, "Your seed will be blessed." He said, "In thee will all the nations of the Earth be blessed." So at the very time when Abraham was given the promise, God told Abraham that Gentile nations would be saved by faith. Listen, the proof in that verse is simply this: "In thee shall all nations be blessed." That means that nations (Gentiles) will be blessed through the seed of Abraham. They don't have to become Jews. The Scripture doesn't say, "All the nations will become what you are." No, all the nations will be blessed through the seed (the Messiah) that comes. (Blessed or Cursed) (Bolding added)

(In another sermon Dr MacArthur says) So Paul says, "Even the Old Testament predicted this, that all nations as nations, Gentiles as Gentiles, would be able to be blessed in Abraham through faith. The key words are there in the middle of the verse: through faith. So God is going to justify the Gentiles not by circumcision but through faith. That's what God meant when He said to Abraham, "Through you will all nations be blessed."

What does it mean, "In you will all nations be blessed?" Well, it was simply this. That through the loins of Abraham came whom? Messiah. So it was in Messiah that all were blessed. Take that far enough back, and it was the seed of Abraham that became the One who blessed all. He said, "In you, in your seed, in your loins is that which will come and be a blessing to all" So in the very calling of Abraham, in the end of Gal 3:8, was the promise that Gentiles could be saved as Gentiles. They didn't have to become Jews. They didn't have to get circumcised and keep all the ceremony and the law.

So Paul says, "Abraham was justified by faith. Anyone else who believes like Abraham did is the spiritual child of Abraham." God, from the very start, told Abraham that the Gentiles would be saved through faith. There was coming one from his loins who would be the one to bless all nations as nations. That assumed that they wouldn't become Jews. If 'all nations' were being blessed, they would have to be other than Jews. Otherwise, it would say, "In you shall everyone be blessed who becomes a Jew." No. "In you will all nations be blessed." So Paul proves his point. (Salvation Is by Faith Alone) (Bolding added)

George asks...

What was it that the Scriptures "foresaw" and "preached beforehand" to Abraham? Simply this: the good news of salvation was to be extended to all peoples, including the Gentiles, who would be declared righteous by God, just like Abraham, on the basis of faith. Thus Paul interpreted the Genesis quotation "All nations will be blessed through you" in a far richer sense than traditional Jewish exegesis allowed. Through the Jewish people the world had received many wonderful benefits, above all the sacred Scriptures and the religion of monotheism. However, Paul went much further when "he simply identifies the blessing with God's 'grace' and his 'justification by faith.'" Abraham was special because centuries before Jesus was born he received in this word from God the promise of the Messiah and believed. Paul's exegesis at this point is really a commentary on the declaration of Jesus: "Abraham was overjoyed to see my day; he saw it and was glad" (John 8:56, NEB). (George, T. Vol. 30: Galatians.
