To avoid confusion be aware that after the division of the Kingdom in 931 BC, the Southern Kingdom is most often designated in Scripture as "Judah" and the Northern Kingdom as "Israel." Finally, note that 1 Chronicles 1-9 is not identified on the timeline because these chapters are records of genealogy.

AGED DAVID DESCRIBES ADMINISTRATION OF THE TEMPLE

Now when David reached old age, he made his son Solomon king over Israel - CSB = "old and full of days" or NIV = "old and full of years" David was seventy years old in 970 b.c. (2 Sam 5:4). David is old but still in charge. This is a summary verse because the story of Solomon's succession is taken up in 1 Kings 1. 1 Kings 1:31-40 describes in greater detail how David made sure that Solomon, and not Adonijah, took the throne after his death. Thus this section skips over the rebellion and execution of his other son Adonijah. Adonijah was elder but God had commanded Solomon (not the eldest son) follow David (1Ch 22:9-10). The account of Solomon's succession is resumed in 1Ch 28-29. From 1Ch 28:5 we know it was YHWH's choice, not David's. Solomon's succession is mentioned several times - 1Chr. 22:5,6,9,10; 1Ch 28:5-8; 1Ch 29:1-30. All of the problems associated with Solomon found in 1 Kings 1-2 are omitted. Compare other men who reached a ripe old age - Abraham, Isaac, Job, and faithful priest Jehoiada (Gen. 25:8; 35:29; Job 42:17; 2 Chron. 24:15).

- SPECIAL TOPIC: HUMAN AGING

John Sailhamer has an interesting comment on 1Ch 23:1-2 - First Chronicles 23:1–2 provides the outline for the remaining chapters of 1 Chronicles: "Now when David reached old age, he made his son Solomon king over Israel. And he gathered together [organized] all the leaders of Israel with the priests and the Levites." In reverse order, that summary is the basis for the account of David's organization of the Levites (1Ch 23:1–32; 24:20–31), the priests (1Ch 24:1–19), the musicians and doorkeepers (1Ch 25:1–26:32), and the princes of Israel (1Ch 27:1–34). The enthronement of Solomon, noted first in this passage, is the concern of the third account of the promise to David (1Ch 28:1–29:30). (Everyman's Bible Commentary - Chronicles)

Warren Wiersbe - David knew that the ministers of the temple also had to be organized and prepared if God was to be glorified. Too often local church building programs concentrate so much on the financial and the material that they ignore the spiritual, and then a backslidden and divided congregation meets to dedicate the new edifice! A gifted administrator, David organized the Levites (chap. 23), the priests (chap. 24), the temple singers (chap. 25), and the temple officers (chap. 26). David wanted to be sure that everything in God's house would be done "decently and in order" (1 Cor. 14:40 nkjv)! (Borrow Be restored : trusting God to see us through : OT commentary, 2 Samuel & 1 Chronicles)

Jack Hay - A new section of 1 Chronicles commences here. The ark had been brought to Jerusalem and a site for the temple had been procured. Workmen had been marshalled and materials for the construction had been accumulated. Solomon and the princes of Israel had been commanded to build. Now chapters 23-27 take proceedings a stage further as David anticipates the day when the building will be completed, and when temple service will commence. In preparation for that, he arranges various courses of Levites, priests, singers and doorkeepers who would operate a shift system to ensure the smooth functioning of divine service. Chapter 27 rounds off the section with details of those in the military and in the civil service of the nation. Such particulars may seem superfluous to the overall theme of the book, but the security of the nation and its political stability would facilitate the building of the house of God and the subsequent religious activity connected with it....When the temple was built and Solomon adopted the system of courses, the comment is made, "so had David the man of God commanded" (2 Chr 8:14). Similarly, in Hezekiah's reign there is reference to the way things operated in the temple, and it was "according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the Lord by his prophets" (2 Chr 29:25). So, then, the system was not invented by David, but was put in place by divine decree. What David had been given "by the spirit" (1 Chr. 28:12) was what he implemented. It would be good for us all to be equally obedient to what the Spirit of God has dictated. (What the Bible Teaches – 1 Chronicles and 2 Chronicles)

The Wycliffe Bible Commentary - One of David's most lastingly significant contributions to posterity lay in the arrangements that he made for the ministry of the tribe of Levi. The genius he displayed in the organization of the Levites helped preserve the Levitical services under his successors, provided the administrative force for the revival of the Mosaic theocracy under Ezra, and continued to serve as the basis for Israel's religious organization on into NT times.

Here is a simple outline:

Levitical Families, 23:1–24:31
Musicians, 25:1–31
Gatekeepers, 26:1–19

- he gathered: 1Ch 13:1 28:1 Jos 23:2 24:1 2Ch 34:29,30

Related Passages:

1 Chronicles 22:17 David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon, saying,

1 Chronicles 28:1 Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the officials of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the commanders of the divisions that served the king, and the commanders of thousands, and the commanders of hundreds, and the overseers of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, with the officials and the mighty men, even all the valiant men.

DAVID BEGINS WITH WORSHIP LEADERS

Life Application Study Bible \(borrow\) Bible makes an excellent point that "The original readers of Chronicles were rebuilding the Temple after it had been destroyed by invading armies, and this information about its procedures was invaluable to them. The next five chapters demonstrate that organization is essential for smooth and effective service. (ED: RECALL CHRONICLES WAS WRITTEN AFTER THE 70 YEAR EXILE IN BABYLON AND AFTER THE DESTRUCTION OF SOLOMON'S TEMPLE.)

While we have alluded to this in the previous chapter, it bears repeating, so that we can understand that David's orders for organizing the Levites were not a matter of his own will but a matter of carrying out the will of Jehovah. And so we read...

He (DAVID) then stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with harps and with lyres, according to the command of David and of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for the command was from the LORD through His prophets. (2 Chronicles 29:25)

Comment - Note the chain of communication: Yahweh to Gad/Nathan to David to the leaders, priests and Levites. David sought to do God's will on earth as it is in Heaven!

And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel with the priests and the Levites- David is gathering all the leaders with the express purpose of instructing them in how they are to assist Solomon in the construction of the Temple. David's priorities are right, for he begins with the worship leaders and not until 1Ch 27 does he describe the military leaders. Worship of God should always precede our work for God. Our being is more critical than our doing. If Jesus is our priority, rivers of living water will come forth from our innermost being to do things that glorify our Lord and King. The danger in Christianity is falling into the trap of "doing" to the neglect of the "being." I fear that there is much doing in Christianity that is not based on the firm foundation of abiding in Jesus. Jesus gave us His pattern for "doing" declaring "'I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides (present tense - continually - see our need to depend on the Holy Spirit to accomplish this as our habitual practice) in Me and I in him, he bears (present tense - continually) much fruit (WHAT AN INCREDIBLE PROMISE TO WE WHO WERE ONCE HIS ENEMIES!), for (TERM OF EXPLANATION - EXPLAINING WHY JESUS' PATTERN FOR MINISTRY IS TO CRITICAL) apart from Me you can do (ABSOLUTELY) nothing." (John 15:5).

All the servants at the temple were descendants of Aaron (except the Nethinim, Ezra 2:43,58,70; 7:7; 8:17,20).

TOTAL NUMBER OF THE LEVITES

In 1 Chronicles 23:2-32 we see the organization of the Levites. "The arrangement of chapter 23 is simple and straightforward. The names of the heads of the family of Levi are listed (1Ch 23:3–24), and then the duties specified by David are enumerated (1Ch 23:25–32)." (Sailhamer)

The Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward, and their number by census of men was 38,000- In 1Ch 21:6 it is specifically mentioned that Joab did not count the Levites. Here, they only the Levites are counted with no negative remarks. This census has a markedly different motivation and unlike the census in 1Ch 21 is not about David's pride, but is now about God's glory, for the Levites were set apart ultimately to serve Yahweh! This census recalls God's word to Moses' in Nu 4:1-3+ which says "Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, "Take a census of the descendants of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' households, from thirty years and upward, even to fifty years old, all who enter the service to do the work in the tent of meeting. It appears that David lowered this to 20 years in 1Ch 23:24, 27. No upper limit of the age of fifty is mentioned here, possibly because the new duties were less strenuous than formerly as discussed more below.

DIVISION OF DUTIES: FIRST TWO GROUPS OF LEVITES

Of these, 24,000 were to oversee the work of the house of the LORD- NLT = "24,000 will supervise the work at the Temple" Imagine what it takes to care for your own house, and then imagine the work involved in caring for the LORD'S house that was daily having sacrifices and countless visitors seeking to sacrifice and worship Yahweh. This would explain this larger number of Levites (24,000) to assure proper maintenance and functioning of the Temple. "There would be an endless stream of sacrifices with which the priests would require assistance, and there would also be the constant business of carrying out dirt, and maintaining the cleanliness of the vessels of the sanctuary." (Hay)

Wiersbe - The fact that the Levites took care of the sanctuary while the priests served at the altar didn't mean that their work was less important to the ministry or to the Lord. Each servant was important to the Lord and each ministry was necessary.

And 6,000 were officers and judges - (This function is described in 1Ch 26:20-32) These would function as magistrates of the land.

Guzik - The Levites were also the civil servants for the kingdom of Israel. Governmental records, decisions, and administration were all in the hands of the Levites.

Utley summarizes - There are several kinds of Levites.

1. those who oversee the work of the house of the Lord
2. officers – BDB 1009 (cf. 1 Chr. 26:29; 2 Chr. 19:11; 34:13)
3. judges – BDB 1047; there were religious and non-religious judges, cf. Deut. 17:9,12; 19:17
4. gatekeepers – BDB 1045; 1 Chr. 15:18; 16:38; 26:13; 2 Chr. 8:14; Ezra 2:42,70; 7:7; Neh. 7:1, 45, 73
5. musicians – cf. 1 Chr. 15:16; 16:4-5,42; 25:1-8 (but the priests blew the trumpets, cf. 2 Chr. 29:26)

Since the Levites now helped with the temple, they must be supported by offerings to the temple (cf. Neh. 10:39; 12:47; 13:5,10).

1 Chronicles 23:5 and 4,000 were gatekeepers, and 4,000 were praising the LORD with the instruments which David made for giving praise.

SECOND TWO GROUPS OF LEVITES

and 4,000 were gatekeepers - "Security men" who would assure those coming to sacrifice and worship did so in an orderly manner.

and 4,000 were praising the LORD with the instruments which David made for giving praise- This latter was a new ministry for formerly, a fanfare of trumpets would have signalled the start of a special day in Israel's calendar (Num 10:10). These Levites would be akin to our modern worship or song leaders.

Wiersbe - Nothing that the priests and Levites did in the temple was left to chance or human invention, but was ordained by the Lord. Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, the first high priest (24:1-2), were killed by the Lord for devising their own form of worship (Lev. 10:1-4).

1 Chronicles 23:6 David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

THE THREE SONS OF LEVI

David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Hay - The "courses" or "divisions" (AV margin), were groupings of Levites who operated a shift system, each group functioning for a scheduled period, guaranteeing that there were always enough of them on duty to ensure the smooth functioning of temple service in its various aspects. The courses were divided in keeping with the three branches of the Levitical family. With such vast numbers available for temple service, it was imperative that they were organised in an orderly fashion, for God never operates in a haphazard way. Each shift would consist of the correct number, without anyone being either overburdened or crowded out. (What the Bible Teaches – 1 Chronicles and 2 Chronicles)

Gershon ("exile" or "foreigner") - the eldest of Levi's three sons born before the descent of Jacob's family into Egypt. (Ge. 46:11; Ex. 6:16). In the wilderness the sons of Gershon had charge of the fabrics of the tabernacle when it was moved from place to place, the curtains, veils, tent-hangings (Num. 3: 21-26). Thirteen Levitical cities fell to the lot of the Gershonites (Josh. 21:27-33). But, though the eldest born, the families of Gershon were outstripped in fame by their younger brethren of Kohath, from whom sprang Moses and the priestly line of Aaron. Numbers 4:22-26

Kohath ("assembly") - second son of Levi, father of Amram (Ge. 46:11) who came down to Egypt with Jacob, and lived to the age of one hundred and thirty-three years (Ex. 6:18). Father of the Kohathites (see diagram above for offspring) from whom the three principal divisions of the Levites derived their origin (Ex. 6:18; Nu 3:19, 27). In the journeyings of the tabernacle of the sons of Kohath (Kohathites) had charge of the most holy portions of the vessels. (Numbers 4:1)

Merari ("bitter") - the youngest son of Levi, born before the descent of Jacob into Egypt, and one of the seventy who accompanied him thither (Gen. 46:11; Ex. 6:16). He became the head of one of the Gershonites who had to carry from place to place (Num. 3:20, 33-37; 4:29-33). In the distribution of the oxen and waggons offered by the princes (Num. 7), Moses gave twice as many to the Merarites (four waggons and eight oxen) as he gave to the Gershonites, because the latter had to carry only the lighter furniture of the tabernacle, such as the curtains, hangings, etc., while the former had to carry the heavier portion, as the boards, bars, sockets, pillars, etc., and consequently needed a greater supply of oxen and waggons. Twelve cities with their suburbs were assigned to them (Josh. 21:7, 34-40).

1 Chronicles 23:7 Of the Gershonites were Ladan and Shimei.

- Gershonites: 1Ch 6:17-20 15:7 26:21
- Laadan: Laadan and Libni, seem to have been two distinct names of this person; but the variation of Shimi and Shimei exists only in the translation, the original being uniformly [Shim'iy <Strong's H8096>.] Ex 6:17, Libni, Shimi

Three major groups of Levites

1. Gershonites (1Ch 23:7–11)
2. Kohathites (1Ch 23:12–20)
3. Merarites (1Ch 23:21–23).

DAVID ADDRESSES THE THREE MAJOR DIVISIONS

Of the Gershonites were Ladan ("put in order") and Shimei ("fame") - This Shimei is not the Benjamite of the house of Saul, who stoned and cursed David when he reached Bahurim in his flight from Jerusalem on the occasion of the rebellion of Absalom (2Sa 16:5-13).

1 Chronicles 23:8 The sons of Ladan were Jehiel the first and Zetham and Joel, three.

- Jehiel: 1Ch 15:18,20,21
- Joel: 1Ch 6:33,34 15:7,11,17

The sons of Ladan were Jehiel the first and Zetham and Joel, three.

1 Chronicles 23:9 The sons of Shimei were Shelomoth and Haziël and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' households of Ladan.

The sons of Shimei were Shelomoth and Haziël ("vision of God") and Haran ("mountaineer"), three. These were the heads of the fathers' households of Ladan.

1 Chronicles 23:10 The sons of Shimei were Jahath, Zina, Jeush and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

- Zina: Zina seems to be a mistake for Zizah; for both the LXX. and Vulgate read uniformly [Ziza,] Ziza. 1Ch 23:11, Zizah

The sons of Shimei were Jahath ("He will snatch up"), Zina ("well-fed"), Jeush ("assembler") and Beriah ("with a friend"). These four were the sons of Shimei Utley - "Zina" In the next verse it is spelled "Zizah." The Chronicler is obviously using different lists.

1. Notice that there are two lists of the sons of Shimei; 1 Chr. 23:9 and 10 differ.
2. The name of Eliezer's son is spelled differently between 1 Chr. 23:17a and 17b.

3. 1 Chr. 23:16 has "sons" but lists only one called "the first."
4. The same as 1 Chr. 23:16, 23:17 has "sons" but only one named, called "the first."
5. Same for 1 Chr. 23:18.
6. The list of 1 Chr. 23:16-23 is repeated with variations in 24:26-30.
7. The age of Levites in 1 Chr. 23:3 is changed in 23:27.

1 Chronicles 23:11 Jahath was the first and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they became a father's household, one class.

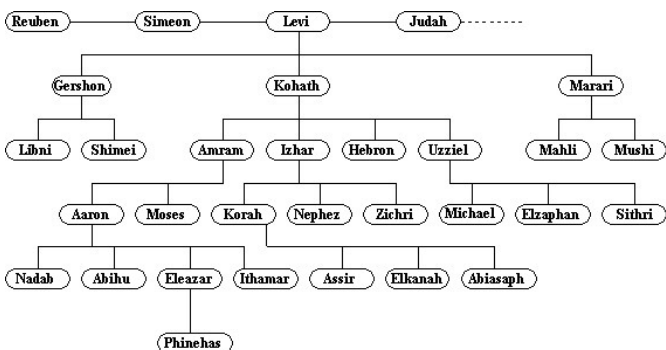

- Zizah: 1Ch 23:10
- had not many sons: Heb. did not multiply sons

Jahath was the first and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they became a father's household, one class.

1 Chronicles 23:12 The sons of Kohath were four: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

- sons of Kohath: 1Ch 6:2 Ex 6:18 Nu 3:27 26:58

The sons of Kohath were four: Amram ("exalted people"), Izhar ("shining oil"), Hebron ("association") and Uzziel ("my strength is God")

Amram ("exalted people") The son of Kohath, the son of Levi. He married Jochebed, "his father's sister," and was the father of Aaron, Miriam, and Moses (Ex. 6:18, 20; Num. 3:19). He died in Egypt at the age of 137 years (Ex. 6:20). His descendants were called Amramites (Num. 3:27; 1 Chr. 26:23).

Izhar ("shining oil") The father of Korah (Nu 16:1), descended from a Kohathite Levite of this name, whose descendants formed a family, in the tribe of Levi (Ex 6:18,21; Nu 3:19,27; 1 Ch 6:18,38).

Hebron ("association") The third son of Kohath the Levite (Ex. 6:18; 1 Chr. 6:2, 18).

Uzziel ("my strength is God") the 4th son of Kohath and grandson of Levi, uncle of Moses and Aaron

ISBE - KOHATH; KOHATHITES - ko'-hath, ko'-hath-its (qehath, qohathi; Kaath): Second son of Levi, and ancestor of Moses and Aaron (Gen 46:11; Ex 6:16-20; Nu 3:17; 1Ch 6:1, etc.). The Kohathites formed one of the three divisions of the tribe of Levi; the other two being the Gershonites and the Merarites (Nu 3:17ff). The Kohathites consisted of four families, the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites (Nu 3:19,27, etc.). Their place in the wilderness was on the southern side of the tabernacle (Nu 3:29), and their number is given (from a month old) as 8,600 (Nu 3:28). Their special charge was "the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the screen, and all the service thereof" (Nu 3:31; compare Nu 7:9). After the conquest 23 cities were assigned them by lot (Josh 21:4,5ff). In David's time and after, Heman, a Kohathite, and his family had a prominent place in the service of the music of the sanctuary (1Ch 6:33ff; 1Ch 16:41ff; 1Ch 25:1ff); David likewise divided the Levites into courses (the Kohathites, 1Ch 23:12-20; 1Ch 24:20-25). We read of the Kohathites in the reign of Jehoshaphat at Engedi (2Ch 20:19), and in connection with the cleansing of the temple under Hezekiah (2Ch 29:12,14)

DUTIES OF THE PRIESTS

The sons of Amram ("exalted people"), were Aaron and Moses.

And Aaron was set apart (badal; Lxx - diastello) to sanctify (qadash; Lxx - hagiazo) him as most holy (godesh; Lxx - hagios), he and his sons forever (olam; Lxx - aionios) - NET - "Aaron and his descendants were chosen on a permanent basis to consecrate the most holy items." Aaron and his descendants were to ensure that every accoutrement connected to the service of God was set apart for that purpose. Notice the emphasis of Aaron's holiness, using 3 terms to describe his status - set apart...sanctify...most holy.

Guzik - The priest was to have an active concern for holiness, and to be able to discern between what was holy and what was not. This means that holiness had to touch the life of the priest; he had to represent God before the people.

Jack Hay - "Aaron was separated", separated not only from the nation as a whole, and not only from the tribe of Levi as a whole, but even from the Kohathite branch of the family. Aaron was distinct; Aaron was unique; his role and that of his descendants was more prestigious than even that of his favoured Kohathite brethren.....In every respect, priests had to discern how to "put difference between holy and unholy, between unclean and clean" (Lev 10:10). (What the Bible Teaches – 1 Chronicles and 2 Chronicles)

Utley note on "Aaron. . .most holy. . .and his sons" This designation is a play on the word "sanctify". It was used to show the higher status of priests over Levites, who are only designated as "holy" (cf. 2Ch 23:60) to burn incense before the LORD, to minister (Lxx - leitourgeo) to Him and to bless (barak) in His Name forever (How long?) - Three descriptions summarize the duties of the Aaronic priests. Incense picturing prayer. Ministry was to be to God Himself. And what a privilege they had to "pronounce blessings in His Name forever." (NRS) This recalls the great Aaronic blessing in Numbers 6:23-27+

"Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, 'Thus you shall bless the sons of Israel. You shall say to them:

The LORD bless you, and keep you;
The LORD make His face shine on you,
And be gracious to you;
The LORD lift up His countenance on you,
And give you peace.'

"So they shall invoke My name on the sons of Israel, and I then will bless them."

THOUGHT - Have you ever prayed this blessing over your family, friends, etc (even over yourself)? As a priest of the LORD (Rev 1:6+; 1Pe 2:9+), you have the privilege of praying this over others! Don't miss out on bestowing this blessing on many people you encounter, and to enable you to do this, take time to commit these priceless words to memory! Let us pray more, not for ourselves so much as for others.

Guzik on incense - Incense is a picture of intercessory prayer. The priest had to represent the people before the Lord. "The fragrant incense stealing heavenward is a beautiful emblem of intercessory prayer. Let us pray more, not for ourselves so much as for others. This is the sign of growth in grace, when our prayers are fragrant with the names of friend and foe, and mingled with the coals of the golden altar." (Meyer)

LOWER AGE FOR LEVITICAL SERVICE

ESV Study Bible \(borrow\) points out that "David appears as the successor to Moses (see Numbers 4) in redefining the Levites' duties for the new age of the temple."

These were the sons of Levi according to their fathers' households, even the heads of the fathers' households of those of them who were counted, in the number of names by their census, doing the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from twenty years old and upward - This lowering of the age requirement is mentioned again in the days of Hezekiah (2 Chr 31:17) and in the post-exilic community (Ezra 3:8).

Wiersbe - The phrase "for the service of the house of the Lord" (or its equivalent) is used several times in these chapters to remind us that ministry is the major responsibility of God's servants in God's house. GOD'S REST FOR HIS PEOPLE

For - This is a term of explanation. What might the writer be explaining? What had he just described in the previous passage? David had lowered the age requirement for Levitical helpers to 20 years. Since the Levites would no longer be required to transport the tabernacle, a task necessitating strength and maturity, it would be reasonable to lower the age and this would also provide more helpers for the temple service. The idea of rest meant they no longer had to wander in the wilderness (and carry the tabernacle) and this is linked with the fact that God had now made Jerusalem His permanent residence, so there would be no need to move the tabernacle.

David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given rest to His people- This is a repeat of 1Ch 22:18 where David declared "Is not the LORD your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people."

Wiersbe - The Israelites were at rest in their land and no longer a nomadic people, so the Levites didn't have to carry the various parts of the tabernacle from place to place (see Num. 4). The construction of the temple meant that the Levites would need new assignments. One of their tasks would be to keep the temple clean and in good repair and make sure that the temple precincts were ceremonially pure. They also saw to it that the supply of meal was available for the offerings. Whenever the daily, monthly, and annual sacrifices were offered, the Levite choir would provide praise to the Lord. (Borrow Be restored : trusting God to see us through : OT commentary, 2 Samuel & 1 Chronicles)

DAVID'S LAST WORDS FOR THE LEVITES

G Campbell Morgan - "Never was the true kingliness of David more manifest, than when he sought to make these arrangements for the consolidation around the Throne of God of that kingdom which he was so soon to leave."

For - Term of explanation. What is the writer explaining? Observe the age in 1Ch 23:3 (thirty years) and then in 1Ch 23:24 (twenty years). So what is being explained?

by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered from twenty years old and upward - The writer is explaining that the change in age is because David made that change and he made that change because the Levites would no longer have to carry the tabernacle and all its utensils which was a labor intensive task requiring strength, but it was also a spiritual task, for transportation of the holy things had to be done reverentially and presumably thirty year old Levites were more spiritually mature than twenty year old Levites. Now with the Temple stationary, while spiritual maturity was important, it was not as critical as when handling the holy things of the tabernacle.

Jack Hay explains that "because of the rest that the people enjoyed (REST IN THE LAND FROM ENEMIES), and the fact that God had chosen to place His name in Jerusalem permanently, there was no further need for the (PORTABLE) tabernacle, and hence no need for the backbreaking task of transporting it. With all that in the past, men of a lesser age and physique could now be helpers in temple service. This shift of policy was among the last things that David decreed (v. 27), but as was stated in the introduction to the chapter, never forget that it was all by divine command. (What the Bible Teaches – 1 Chronicles and 2 Chronicles)

Guzik - 2 Chronicles 29:25 tells us that David commanded these arrangements as he worked together with Gad the king's seer and Nathan the prophet. It also tells us that these arrangements were the commandment of the LORD by his prophets. This was Holy Spirit guided organization and administration.

Payne - "Guided by the prophets (2 Chronicles 29:25), the king exercised his administrative genius to establish a system of procedures that helped maintain legitimate worship under his successors."

LEVITES CALLED TO ASSIST AARON

For their office is to assist (yad = hand; Lxx - leitourgeo - minister in present tense = continually) the sons of Aaron with the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers and in the purifying (taborah; Lxx - katharismos - cleansing literally & ritually) of all holy (qodesh; Lxx - hagios - set apart) things, even the work of the service (Lxx - leitourgia) of the house of God - In vv 28-32 there is now a more detailed description of the activities of the Levites (cf general description in 1Ch 23:4). The sons of Aaron were the only ones qualified to be the priests. Stated another way, all priests were Levites, but not all Levites were priests. The non-priestly Levites who had previously cared for transporting and caring for the portable Tabernacle, would now "oversee the work of the house (Temple) of the LORD." (1Ch 23:4). Purification (and cleanliness) for the Israelites was more than an abstract idea but was divine instruction which had to be followed in order to carry out the various religious ceremonies and rituals.

sacrificial and worship activities. How much more do we as His set apart "instruments" need to be purified! Are you (I) frequently cleansed by the washing of the water with the Word of God (Eph 5:26+) and with confession and repentance (Pr 28:13+), that we might be useful to the Master, prepared for every good work. One wonders if we will even see that "good work" (cf Eph 2:10+) during the day if we fail to begin our day "in the purifying of the holy things" (i.e., our temples, 1Co 6:19+)? Just wondering.

Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself (herself) from these things, he (she) will be a vessel for honor,
Sanctified (set apart),
Useful to the Master,
Prepared for every good work.

Jack Hay has an interesting historical note that "For the more part the Levites were content to function in their subsidiary role, but a sad situation arose when Korah and others underestimated their privilege, and aspired to the priesthood (read Nu 16:8-10+). They came under the judgment of God—a salutary lesson for us all, lest we too should cast a greedy eye on someone else's work for God instead of being satisfied to labour at what has been assigned to us. "As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another" (1 Pet 4:10). INSTRUCTIONS FOR BREAD OF THE PRESENCE and with the showbread (bread of the Presence), It was the priests' office to place this bread before the Lord ("bread of the Presence") and it was their privilege to feed on the old loaves when they were replaced by the new.

Showbread - Ex. 25:30 (R.V. marg., "presence bread"); 1 Chr. 9:32 (marg., "bread of ordering"); Num. 4:7: called "hallowed bread" (R.V., "holy bread") in 1 Sam. 21:1-6. This bread consisted of twelve loaves made of the finest flour. They were flat and thin, and were placed in two rows of six each on a table in the holy place before the Lord. They were renewed every Sabbath (Lev. 24:5-9), and those that were removed to give place to the new ones were to be eaten by the priests only in the holy place (see 1 Sam. 21:3-6; comp. Matt. 12:3, 4). The number of the loaves represented the twelve tribes of Israel, and also the entire spiritual Israel, "the true Israel;" and the placing of them on the table symbolized the entire consecration of Israel to the Lord, and their acceptance of God as their God. The table for the bread was made of acacia wood, 3 feet long, 18 inches broad, and 2 feet 3 inches high. It was plated with pure gold. Two staves, plated with gold, passed through golden rings, were used for carrying it. BREAD OF THE PRESENCE and the fine flour for a grain offering (minchah), and unleavened (massa/matsah; Lxx - azumos - unleavened) wafers, or what is baked in the pan or what is well-mixed - Even the baking "recipes" were part of the work of the Levites.

Grain offering - Ordinances concerning, Ex. 29:40, 41; 30:9; 40:29; Lev. 2; 5:11, 12; 6:14-23; 7:9-13, 37; 9:17; 23:13, 16, 17; Num. 4:16; 5:15, 18, 25, 26; 8:8; 15:1-16, 24; 18:9; 28:5, 9, 12, 13, 20, 21, 26-31; 29:3, 4, 14. To be eaten in the holy place, Lev. 10:13; Num. 18:9, 10. Offered with the sacrifices, Num. 15:3-16. Not mixed with leaven, Lev. 2:4, 11; 6:14-18; 10:12, 13; Num. 6:15, 17. Storerooms for, in the temple reconstructed by Ezra, Neh. 12:44; 13:5, 6; provided for in the vision of Ezekiel, Ezek. 42:13.

Minchah: "meal offering" (the Revised Version), "meat offering" (the King James Version), a gift or presentation, at first applied to both bloody and unbloody offerings (Gen 4:5), but in Moses' time confined to cereals, whether raw or roast, ground to flour or baked and mixed with oil and frankincense. These cereals were the produce of man's labor with the soil, not fruits, etc., and thus represented the necessities and results of life, if not life itself. They were the invariable accompaniment of animal sacrifices, and in one instance could be substituted for them (see SIN OFFERING). The term minchah describes a gift or token of friendship (Isa 39:1), an act of homage (1 Sam 10:27; 1 Ki 10:25), tribute (Jdg 3:15,17 f), propitiation to a friend wronged (Gen 32:13,18 (Hebrew 14:19)), to procure favor or assistance (Gen 43:11 ff; Hos 10:6).

Jack Hay "Priority had to be given to maintaining the cleanliness of vessels (1Ch 23:28) that were in use for preparing the shewbread and the meat offering with its various recipes. and all measures of volume and size The standards of all weights and measures were in the sanctuary and therefore the Levites had the inspection of weights and measures of every kind, so that no fraud might be committed (cf Lev 19:-35-36). Honesty is inseparably connected with piety and hence the Levites, being sufficiently numerous, were employed to superintend the former, as well as the latter.

Jack Hay From God's standpoint, cheating the customer was intolerable. How much more necessary to avoid depriving Him in what was being offered to Him! Levites were under orders then to ensure the precision of temple weights and measures. They were the maintenance men who diligently tested the accuracy of scales, and the measures for liquids. MORNING AND EVENING THANKS AND PRAISE

They are to stand every morning to thank and to praise the LORD, and likewise at evening- NET = "They also stood in a designated place every morning and offered thanks and praise to the LORD. They also did this in the evening." They still refers to the Levites enumerating their duties in the Temple service. David, the sweet psalmist of Israel, introduces music to the temple service. Thanksgiving and praise are used together to denote singing (1Ch 16:4; 23:30; 25:3; Ezra 3:11; Neh. 12:24,46). Their prescribed posture to stand speaks of the reverence with which they were to hold Yahweh the One Whom they worshipped.

THOUGHT - Do we (I) exercise the same reverential awe and worship to the Most High God, doing so in the morning and the evening? How many times to I go to bed at night without offering thanksgiving and praise to the One Who has enabled me throughout the day? Forgive me Lord for my frequent failure to "Through Him (Jesus) then, continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that give thanks to His name." (Heb 13:15+) Lamentations 3:22-23 gives us a good reason to offer Him thanks and praise every morning for "The LORD'S lovingkindnesses indeed never cease, For His compassions never fail. (SO SHOULD BE OUR THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE!) They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness." See related resources Thoughts on the Quiet Time and Quiet Time: 7 Minutes With God. Utley - "The morning and evening sacrifice of a lamb is called "the Continual" (cf. Ex 29:38-41; Nu 28:3-8; 1Ch 16:40)."

Jack Hay - When Abraham's servant experienced divine leading throughout the day, in the evening he "bowed down his head, and worshipped the Lord" (Gen 24:11, 26-27). Let us be just as grateful to our God as we kneel before Him at the close of the day to reflect on His gracious dealings with us. Of course, men like David and Daniel incorporated another devotional time into their day (Dan 6:10). "Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud" (Ps 55:17). It is always appropriate to express our thanks to a beneficent God, and those who are filled with the Spirit will be "Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Eph 5:20). in the number set by the ordinance concerning them, continually before the LORD- NET = "A designated number were to serve before the LORD regularly in accordance with regulations."

Jack Hay (What the Bible Teaches – 1 Chronicles and 2 Chronicles) - The Levites would also assist with the "burnt offerings" (RV). The reference here is not so much to an individual coming with his offering as in Leviticus 1, but rather to the ritual connected to special days in Israel's calendar. Some were weekly, "the sabbaths". Some were monthly, "the new moons". Some were annually, "the set feasts", and then the word "continually" is used. It is all a reminder of the inadequacy of the Old Testament sacerdotal system in contrast to the sufficiency of the work of Christ. "Every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God" (Heb 10:11-12). We are indebted to Isaac Watts for expressing in poetic form the teaching of these great chapters of the Epistle to the Hebrews. He does so in his delightful hymn, "Jesus in thee our eyes behold ..." One verse encapsulates our present consideration.

Fresh blood as constant as the day
Was on their altar spilt;
But Thy one offering takes away
For ever all our guilt.

Utley summarizes - The Levites are to assist the priests

1. by working in the courts and chambers
2. in purifying all holy things
3. in making showbread
4. in producing the fine flour of the grain offering
5. in making unleavened wafers
6. in making all baked goods
7. by being involved daily in blessing rituals
8. by being involved in the sacrifices (both at festivals and each day [i.e., washing the animals; clearing the ashes; etc.])
9. in helping administer the temple and the priests
10. later they became local teachers (cf. 2 Chr. 17:8; 35:3; Neh. 8:7-8)

This would develop into rabbinical Judaism's position of "rabbi" (i.e., "teacher"). Ezra was the first of this category.

THREE GENERAL TASKS FOR THE LEVITES

Thus they are to keep charge of the tent of meeting, and charge of the holy place, and charge of the sons of Aaron their relatives, for the service of the house of the LORD - This passage functions as a summary of the responsibilities allocated to the Levites. Mention of the tent of meeting is interesting as clearly there would no longer be a tent when the Temple was finished. Therefore this instruction could refer to the maintenance of the tabernacle in the interim while the Temple was being built.
